Exceptional Personal Circumstances

The phrase "exceptional personal circumstances" is intentionally broad, providing you with an opportunity to address any factors that may have impacted your academic performance or prevented you from participating in extracurricular and/or community service activities.

Exceptional personal circumstances can include a range of occurrences including, natural disasters, prolonged illnesses or injuries, legal or disciplinary matters, or personal events that significantly disrupted the applicant's life. Exceptional personal circumstances can include circumstances that, while not singular events or major life changes, posed additional challenges to completing or engaging with schoolwork. Examples of such challenges could include dedicating substantial time to a job to support your family financially or facing connectivity issues like poor wifi that hindered your ability to complete homework.

33. Please explain, in 300 words or less, any unusual circumstances that have affected your ability to achieve in school or participate in extracurricular activities and/or community service activities during your high school career or that have affected your family's current financial situation (i.e., extraordinary medical expenses, parent or guardian's loss of job, multiple siblings in college, etc).

Essay

- 34. You must write and submit a one-page essay with your application. The essay must be 600 words or less, double spaced, Times New Roman, 12 point font. You may choose one of the following essay questions:
 - a. What are your academic and career goals? Please specify the educational goals you intend to pursue, explain your long-term goals, and describe how receiving this scholarship will help you achieve your educational and career goals.
 - b. What hardships have you encountered and how have they shaped you as a student? Please highlight any extenuating circumstances that have affected your ability to achieve in school or participate in extracurricular activities and/or community service activities during your high school career or that have affected your family's current financial situation, explain how these hardships have shaped you as a student, and describe how receiving this scholarship will help you overcome these circumstances to achieve your educational and career goals.
 - c. How have you contributed to your community? Please share insights into one community service activity you engaged in over the past year. Please elaborate on the reasons behind your choice to participate, the personal impact of the experience, your specific contributions to the activity, and how this encounter has shaped your educational and career goals.

Frederick W. Fischer "Helping Hands" Scholarship

Applicants for the Fischer "Helping Hands" Scholarship must demonstrate their financial need, indicating an insufficient budget to cover some or all of their higher education expenses. This implies a substantial requirement for financial support to successfully pursue their college degree, in addition to federal grants, student loans, part-time employment, and other income sources.

To verify financial need, students must submit one of the following: their parent or guardian's current 1040 form (page 1), a copy of the student's Student Air Report (SAR), or the student's completed FAFSA. It is crucial to provide this documentation as part of the application process. Failure to do so will result in disqualification from consideration for the Fischer "Helping Hands"

Scholarship, although it will not affect eligibility for other scholarships offered by the Cuero ISD Education Foundation.

40. Would you like to be considered to receive the Fischer "Helping Hands" Scholarship?

Financial Need Verification

- 41. Please provide a detailed list of the grants and scholarships you have been awarded to date? Include the name of each grant and/or scholarship, the amount awarded, and the semester(s) in which those funds will be disbursed to you.
- 42. Please upload a copy of your parent or guardian's current 1040 (page 1), a copy of the student's Student Aid Report (SAR), OR the student's completed FAFSA.
- 43. You must confirm that, if you are awarded a Frederick W. Fischer "Helping Hands" Scholarship, you understand the additional requirements pertaining to transcripts:
 - a. [checkbox] I commit to initiating a request for an e-transcript be sent directly to the Cuero ISD Education Foundation from the college, university, or accredited trade school I attend at the end of the Fall 2024 semester, due no later than December 20, 2024. If an e-transcript is not an option available to me, I will request a paper version be mailed instead. I acknowledge that it is my responsibility to follow up with the Cuero ISD Education Foundation, ensuring the successful receipt of my official transcript, by contacting them via email at info@cueroedfoundation.org. I understand that my failure to do so will result in my scholarship application being forfeit.
 - b. [checkbox] I commit to delivering a copy of my Spring 2025 registration showing a minimum of 12 credit hours to the Cuero ISD Education Foundation no later than December 20, 2024. I understand that I should deliver this to the Cuero ISD Education Foundation via email at info@cueroedfoundation.org. I understand that my failure to do so will result in my scholarship application being forfeit.
 - c. [checkbox] I understand that I will need to provide the following information to the college, university, or accredited trade school I attend: Cuero ISD Education Foundation, info@cueroedfoundation.org, P.O. Box 987, Cuero, Texas 77954.

Applicant's Statement

- 44. You must affirm the following statements to submit your application.
 - a. [checkbox] I affirm that throughout my high school career, I have never been placed on probation or subjected to any disciplinary action.
 - b. [checkbox] I affirm that the information furnished in this application is, to the best of my knowledge, accurate and truthful. I am aware that the Cuero ISD Education Foundation reserves the right to verify this application at its discretion.
